Max Lucado encourages to pray audacious prayers. When Martin Luther's coworker became ill, the reformer prayed boldly for healing. "I besought the Almighty with great vigor," he wrote. "I attacked him with his own weapons, quoting from Scripture all the promises I could remember, that prayers should be granted, and said that he must ...

Summary When we pray, it is important to pray for everyone, not just the individuals we know or those who attend church. We can easily forget about the lost souls who do not know God and the lost souls who have backslidden. However, grace-based prayer requires that we sow the Word of God to everyone. As believers, our Christian life can exert a powerful influence on others and lead them to God.
